UNITED STATES ARMY CHAPLAIN CORPS REGIMENTAL ASSOCIATION (USACCRA)

The USACCRA

The USACCRA's mission is to unite under one regimental flag all who have served, are now serving in the Active Army, Army National Guard, and Reserves to promote and support the image, heritage, and traditions of the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps. We are a national professional organization with local chapters serving since 2009.

Purposes of the USACCRA

- Present biennial gatherings of the Army Chaplaincy Family, social activities for educational and fraternal purposes, and perpetuate the memory of deceased Chaplain Corps Family.
- Preserve the legacy of the past, sustain the present, and encourage the future of the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps.
- Provide recognition awards for excellence for members of the Chaplain Corps Regiment.
- Publicize the valuable work of Army ministry teams by spreading the word throughout faith groups and civic organizations.

Membership in the USACCRA

Membership in the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps Regimental Association is open to: Chaplains and Religious Affairs Specialists, active duty and retired/served, members of the Army Reserve and National Guard; DA civilians; Directors of Religious Education; Chaplain Candidates; other DOD persons; endorsing agencies and surviving spouses.

The USACCRA is a private organization under Army Regulation 210-22 and complies with AR 870-21. It is approved and supported by the Chief of Chaplains.

New memberships in the USACCRA are encouraged. Simply fill in the form in this brochure, clip it out and send it with a check or money order for the appropriate amount.
